Description

Ludwig Mies van der Rohe
BRNO model armchair, KNOLL edition

Modernist armchair in cognac-colored leather on a cantilever structure in flat nickel-plated steel. This armchair was created in 1930 by famous designer Ludwig Mies van der Rohe for the villa Tugendhat in Brno city in the Czech Republic from which it will take its name.

One year after creating his famous Barcelona armchairs, Ludwig Mies van der Rohe repeats his feat by creating this armchair with an elegant and refined design, seeming to float in the air. A timeless and modernist design ...
