

Shaman Mask, Humla Region, Nepal

780 EUR

Signature : humla

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage, fentes

Width : 17.50 cm

Height : 31.50 cm

Description

Shaman mask of purification.

Wood, metal, yak hair Mask representing a face surmounted by a bun. A brass sun is encrusted in his forehead.

The mouth is open and shows metal teeth (several teeth are missing in the upper part).

Iron staples are placed on the forehead and chin where yak hair (some remains) were stuck. Slits, h: 31.50 cm

Patina of use Humla region, Nepal Circa 1930

Sold with its base

Dealer

Curiositas

Arts premiers, archéologie

Mobile : 0637773819

Ternand 69620