

Large Silhouette Of A Masonic Priest, Nineteenth Century

780 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'état

Material : Painted wood

Width : 60 cm

Height : 165 cm

Description

Large silhouette in resinous wood painted with tempera dating from the 19th century and representing a priest probably from a Masonic lodge or a priest from the temple of Solomon or even a Jewish priest.

he is painted in bright colors quite naively and wears a magic square with letters on his chest. it is large in size and has some wear, scratches and some runs, take a good look at the photos. this kind of painted wooden silhouette was used, for example, for the trompe l'oeil monuments of the Holy Thursday festivities already in the 18th century.

a curiosity on an unusual and original theme. we deliver and ship all over the world, please contact us for a precise quote.

Dealer

Antoine Claeys - Maison du XVème
antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : 06 85 53 27 42

24 grande Rue

Nogent l'Artaud 02 310