Description

Very beautiful German porcelain vase with detached handles in the style of the famous Danish manufacture Royal Copenhagen. Its beautiful decoration of anemones was made in shades of blue, light gray, pink and green for the stems on a delicately bluish background painted under a very fine glaze. A very beautiful and sober rendering of colors and the perfection of the details characterize this piece. The neck and the base of the vase are mounted in ruddy silver, the neck representing a garland of natural leaves. 1st title neck brace punch on a sheet of the garland on the right and on the base which also includes the goldsmith's punch. Green stamp of the Manufacture as well as a decoration number under the base. Height: 19, 2 cm Good condition. Tiny signs of use. Many other objects to discover
