Description

Louis XV Style Library, cabinetmakers from the Faubourg in Paris. Very good quality of execution for this furniture evoking the work of Ateliers Linke, Sormani. "Rococo" bronzes highlighting the sinuous design of this library, beautiful quality of carving. Radiant marquetry on the central door, bevelled glass on the doors, and on both sides of the cabinet. Tray made up of a thick slab of Parma-colored veined marble, the fields of which are worked "Bec de Corbin" style. The fonçures are in oak. The furniture is in very good condition. Two small swings of veneer on the top of one side, a water stain on the top rail.
