Description

Rare pair of cut-crystal and Sèvres porcelain candlesticks.

Circa 1830.

Pair of table candlesticks in cut-crystal and hard-paste porcelain with a blue agate background, decorated with a frieze of ivy leaves and gold fluting imitating antique columns with chapters. The octagonal base and the upper part in cut crystal.

Sèvres Royal Factory, Charles X or

Louis-Philippe period, without visible mark.

The crystal probably by Saint-Louis glassworks.

The original assembly caused a slight crack. An old mini restoration in gold, good general condition.

H. 13.5 cm.
