Beautiful and large oil on canvas
The painting is large in size and is in good condition and ready to hang.

Marcel René von Herrfeldt (September 1889, in Boulogne-Billancourt - 1965, in Munich) was a German painter and protagonist of the Munich school. Initially adhering to the phraseless Art Nouveau movement, Herrfeldt later incorporated elements of New Objectivity. Merging Art Nouveau and elements of the New Objectivity, he develops a style called Expressive Realism in the respective literature.
