

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Henri Edmond Cross 1856-1910 Pastel Seaside Animated 16 X 22

2 000 EUR

Signature : CROSS

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Pastel

Description

Henri Edmond CROSS Pastel Seaside very bright pastel of an animated Mediterranean coast 16 x 22 cm signed lower left of the stamp this one is very faded, almost invisible to the eye without Wood's lamp we attach the photo of the 'work, with the certificate of authenticity of M^o Chassaing on the back Sale of November 29, 1995 Toulouse The French painter Henri Edmond Cross (1856-1910), whose real name is Henri Joseph Edmond Delacroix, is one of the precursors of the Neo-impressionism with Georges Seurat and Paul Signac, based on the optical division of color, according to the principles of pointillism and divisionism. His work is also essential in the development of avant-garde movements, notably Fauvism, through the figure of Henri Matisse, and cubism.

Dealer

Biarritz Antiques

Antiquaire Généraliste

Mobile : 06.88.06.33.44

adresse postale 7 avenue Mac Croskey et 284 rue des croisades 34280 La Grande Motte
Biarritz 64200

Working in the open air with great freedom,
Henri Edmond Cross paints many landscapes,
seascapes from the South of France and Italy.
comes from a private collection 199513302911