Description

Lithograph of dogs (artist proof) produced by Jacques Nam (1881-1974). Nam studied in 1898 at the Beaux-Arts in the studio of JEan-Léon Gérôme. He then collaborated on the illustration of numerous periodicals and then specialized in works of animals, especially cats, with for example etchings illustrating Colette's books. Slight traces of humidity at the top of the lithograph margin. Yellow slight trace on the white dog.
