Description

French School circa 1850 Villefranche sur mer, the Harbour Watercolor on paper 16 x 24 cm In good condition Framed 29 x 38 cm This very fine watercolor has been attributed to Jules Coignet (1798-1860) by his former owners. It's an interesting suggestion even if there are no historical proofs to assert this attribution. In any case it has been painted at this time by a very good hand. It's also an interesting view of Villefranche in the 19th century. The fortified building in the foreground no longer exists today.
