Description

Charming oil on canvas dating from the end of the 19th century, the beginning of the 20th century with the beautiful colors of dawn or dusk on a body of water.
the painter knew how to play here on colors and contrasts by giving a nice impressionist touch to his painting.
the effect rendered is very pleasant and the colors change a lot depending on the electric light or daylight.
take a look at the contrast between the two light effects, it's very successful!
the painter knew how to play with the effects of clouds, shadows and reflections on the body of water. mounted on a pretty frame with keys, framed in a beautiful wooden frame and gilded stucco.
