

Eighteenth Tin Ear Bouillon

230 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Tin

Length : 30 cm

Diameter : 17,8 cm

Height : 10,5 cm

Description

Louis XIV style pewter ear broth, Louis XV transition.

18th century French work.

The lower part (bowl) bears the hallmark of Joseph Jacques Samain received master in Paris in 1757.

The upper part (cover) bears that of Pierre Gaspard Lamare received Master in Rouen in 1767.

The lid does not fit perfectly on the container, but the two form a very beautiful whole, both in terms of utility and decoration.

Dimensions:

Weight : 750 grams.

Length of the container : 30 centimeters.

Diameter of the container : 17 centimeters.

Dealer

ABCV

silverware, glassware, chandeliers, Jewelry

Tel : +33 6 71 37 08 12

Croissy-sur-Seine 78290

Height of the container : 4.2 centimeters.

Lid diameter : 17.8 centimeters.

Lid height : 6.5 centimeters.

Overall height : 10.5 centimeters.

You can consult our other announcements, and also follow our gallery to be informed of the news

...