Description

Funny painting, oil on canvas, representing the portrait of an old Tyrolean smoking his pipe. Painting signed but not identified, the signature is to be deciphered. Our portrait is in very good condition, the colors are very bright. This charming Tyrolean with a mischievous look almost smirks as he looks at us while smoking his pipe. Table presented in a modern gilded Louis XV style frame in good general condition but with some rare small chips of gilding (some of which were formerly taken back). Canvas dimensions only: 30.3cm x 24.2cm Shipping costs, contact us
