Description

Beautiful rectangular-shaped secretary in mahogany from Santo Domingo with rounded fluted upright, decorated with quarter-round, scraper and bronze pull handles. Opening in front with four drawers and a flap. The flap reveals nine small drawers and two niches, white Carrara marble top set with an openwork bronze gallery. Trefoil lock entry with its original key from the 18th century from the Directoire period (1795-1799). The whole was completely restored by my cabinet maker, the cowhide leather decorated with Greek pattern made with small iron and gold leaf is new (Maison Fey). The whole is of very good quality, The frame is entirely in Oak with, on the mahogany, a very beautiful buffer varnish. Beautiful piece of furniture from the end of the 18th century which
