Description

Achille Fouquier (1817-1895?) "Saint-Jean de Latran à Rome" Pen drawing 23 X 31 cm approximately, signed with the stamp of the signature and located, framed by a mat with marie-louise cream bevel gilded mounted in a pretty frame with very beautiful gilding 37 X 45 cm,
Probably dating like the two other Italian drawings of his trip to the peninsula in 1844, he gives us here a perspective on the Basilica standing out against the background of aqueducts. Tireless traveler Achille Fouquier brought back from his many travels sketches, anecdotes, observations collected in several books that were published. Whether from the Basque Country (he was mayor of Saint-Jean-de-Luz), Italy, Greece, the Balkans or the Middle East, his drawings
