Description

Born in Le Mans of a Breton father, inspector of the Western railways, Maurice Le Scouëzec frequented at the beginning of the 20th century the creative world of the painters of Montparnasse where he rubbed shoulders with artists such as Pablo Picasso or Amedeo Modigliani. Embarked on large sailing ships, he made many trips around the world before returning to France and dying in Douarnenez. Maurice Le Scouëzec was in turn a pilot on tall ships, soldier, globetrotter, adventurer and painter.
