Description

This panel represents a decor of flowers, foliage and architecture with a bird flying over.

This stained glass window is composed of very light pink cathedral rectangular glasses (9.3 x 16cm) painted with "grisaille" and enamels and then fired at high temperature. These rectangles are assembled by H-shaped lead, soldered with tin.
They are surrounded by a light yellow border of cathedral glass.
The stained-glass window is surrounded by a new brass frame (10 x 10 mm).
