Gisèle Ferrandier de Laprade (1909-1990)

"Terrains à Girona" oil on canvas 65 X 92 cm, mounted in a Parnassian frame 80 X 107 cm.

With its marked furrows, its use of complementary colors, this beautiful painting
dates from a period when she gradually simplified reality to bend it to her own vision.

especially of her many trips, from which she brought back many paintings whose style gradually evolved from 'a "classic" 1930 with abstraction through these blazes of color serving for example his landscapes of Morocco, Spain or the South or on his dazzling still lifes.

Her works are present in many museums and major collections and she was crowned with a retrospective exhibition at the Museum of Modern Art of the City of Paris in 1970.
