Description

Hiroyuki Moriyama (1936) moved to France in the 1960s, studied at the Ecole des Beaux-Arts in Paris, exhibited in several Parisian salons, including the salon d'automne, the salon of the National Society of Fine Arts and the Biennale de Mérignac. This oil on canvas represents the port of Arcachon at the end of the 1960s. A very beautiful palette and a very beautiful composition evoke the universe of Jean Hugon in those same years.
