Description

Very beautiful Alsatian chairs from the late 17th century in walnut.
Very sculpted back, grostesque decoration on either side of the back, heart in the center and two eagle heads at the top.
This chair has been restored in our workshops, we have kept its fruit tree seat and we can distinguish on the photo below a part at the front of the seat about 4cm which is posterior.The copper molds shown on the chair are not part of the price, and are sold separately
