Description

Superb and large portrait of an elegant young woman from the XIXth century. This belt represents a young woman standing upright, she is dressed in a red dress with a white collar on which a transparent shawl rests. She is wearing a large hat adorned with a feather and covering her wavy hair. The whole on a landscape of foliage and a setting sun. Very characteristic work of the 19th century English school and in the spirit of the famous painting "the straw hat". The painting is presented in a beautiful original wooden frame and gilded stucco.
