

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Jean Robert Ithier (1904-1977) Ars En Ré, View Of The Church, Oil On Canvas Signed

460 EUR

Signature : Jean Robert Ithier (1904-1977)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 60

Height : 80.5

Description

Jean Robert Ithier (1904-1977)

Ars en Ré, view of the church

oil on canvas

signed lower left

80.5 x 60 cm

No frame

The church of Ars en Ré, a picturesque village on the atlantic island of Ré is very famous for its black and white bell tower. It was used as an "amer" as lighthouse these buildings could be seen from distance on the sea by daytime and were used to guide the boats.

Jean-Robert Ithier gives a dramatic and striking interpretation of the place. The role of the tree on

Dealer

Remi Fremiot

Old Masters paintings and drawings

Mobile : 0676497593

Metro Poissonnière

Paris 75010

the right is decisive to give this feeling of loneliness and tragic beauty.

Jean-Robert Ithier was a french painter, born on 11 september 1904 in Villemomble and dead on 9 march 1977 in Sevrans. He painted landscapes and Paris views. He exhibited at the Salon des indépendants from 1926 onward and throughout France and other countries.

One of his painting is held by the Paris Museums.

Literature : Benezit t 7 p 387