Description

Curious Persian Yezd or Yazd prayer rug originally from Iran and measuring 122 cm wide by 192 cm long in wool. Indeed the shape of the mihrab, the niche is very original, treated like a large arrow covered with stylized and colored flowers, in particular tulips.

Yezd lies between Kirman and Isfahan midway and was once known and famous for its gold thread fabrics.

YEZD rugs are quite rare in the European market because the knotting of small and large size rugs in this city started late and out of necessity.

Yezd was a city of reputable fabric makers, with the textile market at its lowest, locals organized to take up the knotting tradition, taking up the spirit of Kirman rugs and appealing to knotters and designers (the "ostads") of cardboard boxes from the Kirman region.

Like the Kirman rugs, the decorations only feature floral motifs in shades that are always very bright.

The wool used and the high quality knotting also evokes this city. Our yellow, curry yellow, purple color model is covered with flowers by associating green, straw yellow, orange.

It is in very good condition.
