

Ceramic Jars For Food Preservation - Manufacture Boch Frères Kéramis

650 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ceramic

Diameter : 14 cm

Height : 16,5 cm

Description

Set of nine off-white ceramic ovoid-shaped jars with inscriptions in painted Gothic letters "Rice", "Sugar", "Flour" etc. and decoration of printed friezes in the lower and upper parts (5 blue - 3 red)

8 out of 9 jars signed on the underside "Thérat. B.F.K "

The Belgian manufacture Boch Frères Kéramis was founded in 1841, from its beginnings it uses the transfer printing technique. This technique consists in applying to the biscuit, before enameling, a sheet of tissue paper on which the decoration is printed, allowing a cheaper and faster reproduction of the decorations than painting by hand.

Good condition - some chips on one of the jars.

Possibility of being sold separately.
