Description

Chest of drawers in ivory, sycamore, boxwood, ebony, amaranth, rosewood, and rosewood from the XX period. Indeed this chest of drawers is a copy of the chest of drawers made by Georges Schlitig (died in 1782 and received master in 1765) for Marie Antoinette's apartment in Versailles in the eighteenth century.We will notice the realization in three drawers, two without crosspieces as well that the initials MA in a cartouche on the upright (with the figures of Marie Antoinette). The marquetry represents gallant scenes of the Court of France in an architectural landscape. This chest of drawers has been entirely restored with old-style buffering varnish. More photos and information on request. DIMENSIONS: 1.28MX 0.57 AND 0.94M IN HEIGHT
