Important "princess" necklace composed of 5 rows of Japanese cultured pearls "akoïa" color creamy white with a nice sheen - they are all the same diameter (6mm) the crew neck necklace (38.5 cm) highlights a very pretty clasp from the 19th century century in yellow gold, articulated and engraved, in 3 parts, the central one set with a cameo on agate.
This cameo is called "three colors" because the dark part of the agate forms the background, a second white layer is carved with a female face and a third top layer, light beige, highlights the hair and bust.
