

Naive Art. " Hotel Invalid". 1940s-1950s. Sign.

600 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 100 cm

Height : 65 cm

Description

View of the north facade of the Hôtel des Invalides.

The Hôtel des Invalides is a Parisian monument whose construction was ordered by Louis XIV by the royal edict of February 24, 1670, to shelter the invalids of his armies. Today, it still accommodates invalids, but also the Saint-Louis des Invalides cathedral, several museums and a military necropolis with in particular the tomb of Napoleon I.

The painting has been restored by our restorer.
No frame.

Signature to discover, Charles Ulus?

Dimensions 65 cm x 100 cm. 1940s-1950s.

Dealer

Dupire et Kotek

Antiquités, tableaux, arts appliqués, vintage, objets de charme

Tel : 00 32 495 205 344

Mobile : 0032 474 26 22 88

Avenue de Broqueville 34

Bruxelles 1200