

Buddha Maravijaya, Shan Province, Burma, 17th Century

5 800 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Très bon état

Width : 37 cm

Height : 66 cm

Description

Buddha Maravijaya, Shan province, alabaster marble, 17th century.

Buddha seated cross-legged on a plinth, his right leg bent over the left and performing with his right hand, the "mudra" of the taking of the earth witness. This gesture symbolizes the victory of the awakened one over Mara, prince of desires and personification of death.

The cranial protuberance (ushnisha) is surmounted by a point in the form of a rounded stupa, some gaps on the protuberance.

height 60 cm, height with base 66 cm. width: 37 cm.

Dealer

Dionisio

South East Asian Art

Mobile : 06 07 24 23 35

16 Rue Estacarede

Puimisson 34480