Description

revient en France KONSTANTIN KOROVINE was born in MOSCOU ;

He studied under Aleksei SABRASOV well known artist.

His work was influenced by the French impressionism during his numerous sojourns in this country.

In 1900 he decorated the Russian pavilion at the Universal Exposition in Paris where he received a first prize for his work.

Back to Russia, he participated actively at the expositions with the "Ambulants" (moving around) and painted numerous charming paintings
of the life in the country villages;
