Description

Pair of large covered vases in Samson porcelain mounted in chiseled and gilded bronze with rich polychrome painted decoration enhanced in gold with heads of Rams in grips, falls of bunches and grape leaves in relief. Two gallant scenes in reserves and landscapes on the back. These vases rest on gilded bronze plinths with curved corners embellished with pearl, foliage cartouches and grape clusters, supported by four flattened feet. These vases are in perfect condition, just the presence of a slight wear on the golden horns. Presence of the Samson mark, with two crossed swords, below the feet visible on dismantling. Porcelain from the XIXth Century.

Dimensions: Height: 57 cm - Width from head to head of Ram: 26 cm
