Description

Very beautiful work representing the port of Bordeaux, the painting shows a certain mastery of the genre of views of French ports. Unsigned, it nevertheless refers to the work of Pierre Louis Cazaubon, the Godchaux brothers, as well as those of Firmin Barrière. It would not be surprising if the realization of the work fell to one of them. In an original 19th century frame with gold leaf in excellent condition. The port scene is particularly well treated, with the quayside buildings in the background, and many earthy scenes of sailors in the foreground. Rare painting of the Garonne in Bordeaux at this time.
Dimension with frame: 80 cm x 67 cm
