

Jacques De Zébédée Sculpture In Ivory - Eighteenth Time

1 250 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ivory

Height : 19,8 cm

Description

Ivory sculpture representing Jacques de Zébédée with his pilgrim's bumblebee, a book in his left hand as well as two scallops on his coat. It is presented on a molded wooden base and blackened around it. Sculpture from the early eighteenth century. His hand and stick formerly glued together as well as his head, visible in the photos. Dimensions: height of the character: 13.8 cm - height with the base: 19.8 cm

You will find more photos on our site:

www.remparts-antiquites.com

Dealer

Antiquaires David Balzeau & Pascale Brion

Les Remparts Antiquités Expertises Vannes

www.remparts-antiquites.com

Tel : 02 97 47 46 10

Mobile : 06 07 47 04 04

21, rue Francis Decker

Vannes 56000