| Description |
|-------------|

View of a bustling Dutch suburb (could be Amsterdam, or Delft) painted in oil on a mahogany panel by Johannes Franciscus Spohler (1853-1894). Delicate and typical work of this artist skilled in transcribing the urban and wealthy atmosphere of Holland at the end of the 19th century.

Signed lower right. Paint in good condition, which might be brighter by removing the yellowed varnish. Dimensions: 26.6 x 20.4 cm.
