

Gilt Metal Brooch With Miniature On Ivory

650 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

The miniature shows a portrait Henri d'Artois, grandson of France, Duke of Bordeaux, is a prince of the royal family of France, head of the Capetian house of Bourbon, better known by his courtesy title of Count of Chambord, born September 29, 1820 at the Tuileries Palace in Paris, and died August 24, 1883 at Frohsdorf Castle in Lanzenkirchen, Austria. Grandson of King Charles X, chief and last representative of the elder and French branch of the House of Bourbon, he was a pretender to the Crown of France from 1844 until his death under the name of Henri V.

Diameter 3 cm

Dealer

Ostade Antiques

Brussels based antique dealer specialised in 18th and 19th century antiques

Mobile : +32 486251211

Bruxelles 1030