Description

Rare and elegant 18th century game table in solid cherry wood and marquetry. Its triangular-shaped top is entirely inlaid and decorated in its center with a large six-pointed star. It opens by folding over the rear central leg. This sliding rear foot discovers a drawer which also allows the storage of pawns, tokens and cards. When opening the tray reveals a green felt carpet in perfect condition, lined with a moleton. Thanks to its triangular top, this table can be placed in the corner of a room, thus serving as a corner and thus taking up less space. It can also be used as a console. Once opened, this table takes the shape of a square. The board is surrounded by a wooden gallery preventing the falling of the dice, pawns etc ... Our board is provided with four angular and circular appendages, designed in order to
