Description

Louis XV style gilt bronze and white marble clock decorated with a couple of little cupids with butterfly wings, present on each side of a dial decorated with polychrome flower garlands. This clock is supported by a double four-legged base decorated with a dolphin and surmounted by a leafy scallop shell. This clock has been revised and works perfectly. Just to point out some slight wear to the gilding, a few small stains on the marble and chips in the winding of the clock on the dial. Period late nineteenth.
