Enigmatic Naive Triptych Around The Christmas Party

Description

Large oil on canvas composed of different scenes around Christmas: top left, the family around the tree - below the festive meal - in the center, the midnight mass with above the haloed baby Jesus - in the foreground an elegant woman in a fur jacket holds a child by the hand, next to it, seated on the mashes of the church another woman breastfeeds a child, stretching out a hand as if to beg - to the right in a dark and snowy street, a couple old man walks away followed by a small dog. In addition to these small scenes, a multitude of details attract attention: the child who hides under a bed, the little girl all in white who holds her doll, the dog and his rosary ... of sausages, the grandfather and his basket of alcohols and many others.
