Material : Wool

Length : 215 cm

Width : 160 cm

Description

Iranian wool rug, 1950-60. Cotton warp and weft.
Good condition. Strong and durable mat.

Located in the south-east of Tehran, the small town of Véramine produced rugs most often using the timeless 'mina khani' (daisy motif) motif, an interpretation of the 'herati' or 'mahi' motif.

Harmonious combination of colors for this veramine with original graphics including a central medallion on a red background, inserted in an ivory medallion. In the borders, various "cartridges", take again floral motives, but also, animal representations (weasels, or ferrets).
