Description

The particularity of this 17th century Spanish style dagger is its enormous size. It measures indeed 85 cms !
The manufacture is of course from the 19th century.
The gigantic size of this dagger evokes a prestigious gift, or perhaps the simple desire for the proud owner to own a unique object, outside of the common criteria.
BLADE: It takes the typical shape of Spanish left hands from the 17th century, with classic cutouts and floral decor. It was reworked manually after leaving the foundry (cast steel) . L = 66.3 cms
MOUNT : Twisted cross bar, quillons in the shape of flower buds.
Guard triangle :Finely chiseled bronze
Pommel with floral motifs
