Description

Raymond Dierickx (1904-1978) "The witch", charcoal 45 X 60 cm mounted under a neutral pH mat 60 X 80 cm.

Riding her broom, the witch flies over a small Belgian village on the square of which a circus has set up its tent. It was for us a real discovery that this beautiful Belgian artist!

Even found in leaves and dusty, these watercolors, once prepared and framed, reveal all the talent of Dierickx, close to artists like Nicolas Eeckmann, Fritz Van den Berghe, Constant Permeke or other typically Flemish expressionists such as Anto Carte, representing Fêtes, processions, fairs in the great tradition of Flemish painters dating back to the 17th century with the Brughels, but treated with great modernity. Other facets of his work show us his projects for
