Description

MANGENOT (Emile). Oil on canvas, signed and captioned on the reverse: Plain landscape.

Dimensions: 331 x 462 mm. Interesting composition in the post-impressionist vein signed E. [Emile] Mangenot (1910 - 1991) in the lower left margin. "Landscape designer, Emile Mangenot soberly describes views of France". (in Bénézit). Water holds an essential place in his work. Relating to the Post-Impressionists at the time of his beginnings, he then managed to paint "the soul of the landscape". Mangenot is considered one of the best knife painters of his time, if not the best. His learned and stripped down technique allows him to express the intense poetry emanating from his work, which is a hymn to nature ". Bénézit VII, Dictionary of painters, p. 139. A few light jumps of paint on the lower
