Description

Large hexagonal-shaped ceiling lamp in nickel-plated bronze with its original bowl in cloudy white satin glass, curved, from the "SCHNEIDER" crystal house. It is from the Art Deco period (circa 1930) and in perfect condition. The bronze mount has been renickeled and the electrification redone. The ceiling light is easily fixed by screwing the crosspiece to the ceiling and the basin can be removed by unscrewing the 6 "nuts" in the shape of an ogive that can be seen in the photos.
