sumptuous numbered coat of arms underlined by a painted decoration of flowery palms which follows its shape, coat of arms surmounted by the motto "to friendship".

It is provided with two oblong vertical cases forming a pen holder and with a handle which has an orifice above, an orifice which communicates via the upper attachment with the interior of the main receptacle.

The removable central cup has a hole in the bottom to allow the ink to rise; it is covered with a small cover surmounted by a spherical fretel.

You will have noticed that this inkwell is generously enhanced with gold threads and that cups and support cases are underlined with falling pearl drops also golden.
