

Pair Of Cups

390 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Pair of cylindrical cups with a flat bottom and a light heel, also called "Litron". They are decorated with multiple roses entirely hand painted, a typical decoration of Limoges production in the 19th century. The lateral and vertical handle of each cup is enhanced with a gold thread. The matching saucers have the same "la rose de Limoges" decoration and also have a flat bottom. The border is inclined and enhanced with a gold thread. Shipping and protection costs Metropolitan France 15 euros, other destinations contact us.
