Description

Silver and cut-crystal confiturier in Medici-shape decorated with two handles with floral motifs and volutes end in a swan's head. The silver frame is adorned with laurel leaves and stylized palmettes. The confiturier dish rests on a raised foot adorned with four leaning dolphins placed on a finely chiseled square base with a floral frieze. Four feet with foliage motifs support the set. The removable lid is topped with a flower. Twelve vermeil spoons are organized around the confiturier bowl and are held by a silver display. French Restauration; circa 1820-1830. Weight: 55.16oz (1564 g).

-French silver marks for the confiturier:

Head of Old man:1819-1838

Giraffe head: 1835-1838.
