

Betel Box In Silver, India Around 1900

1 260 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Diameter : 11,3 cm

Height : 11,5 cm

Description

Openwork silver box with flat bottom, ten lobes, intended for storing betel leaves. The decoration of the body and the domed cover is executed in repoussé, chiseled in lines and in mat, it represents foliage and blooming flowers. The catch of the cover is shaped like a pawn; it stands in the middle of a corolla of leaves surrounded by a frieze of cordage. India, Rajasthan end of the 19th century or beginning of the 20th century.
900/1000 silver French "swan" check marks
Diameter: 11.3 cm Height: 11.5 cm Weight: 527 gr Very good condition / without shocks or scratches

Dealer

Lucas L&E

Argenterie ancienne, Arts liturgiques, Arts Russes, Arts de la tables

Mobile : 0615687757

Maisons-Laffitte 78600