Description

Raymond Dierickx (1904-1978) "Blue Station of the Cross" pastel 50 X 70 cm mounted under neutral pH mat 60 X 80 cm. A Christ carrying his cross on the stairs leading to the village below falls under the compassionate gaze of passers-by. It was for us a real discovery that this beautiful Belgian artist! Even found in leaves and dusty, these drawings, once prepared and framed reveal all the talent of Dierickx, close to artists such as Nicolas Eeckmann, Fritz Van den Berghe, Constant Permeke or other typically Flemish expressionists such as Anto Carte, representing Fêtes , processions, fairs in the great tradition of Flemish painters dating back to the 17th century with the Brughels, but treated with great modernity. Other facets of his work show us his projects for frescoes or large decorations, often
