

PROANTIC

LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Netherlands: Late 18th Century Pilgrimage Plate To The Lactating Virgin

340 EUR

Signature : Art Populaire Hollande

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Diameter : 18cm

Description

Small English Creamware Plate decorated in the Netherlands, late 18th century. The Virgin wears a very ornate robe and holds a staff in her right hand. Around her: Chapels, a cross, two pilgrims. Below: Onse Live Vrouw Tot Kevelaar (Our Lady of Kevelaar). Small fire decor in excellent condition, bright and fresh colors. Interestingly, the Virgin Mary is depicted with a bare chest. "The nursing virgin was the main symbol of God's love for mankind." "Maria Lactans" Kevelaar is a municipality in the district of Kleve, in North Rhine-Westphalia in Germany. It is the largest Catholic pilgrimage site in northwestern Europe. Dimensions: 18cm. Take a good look at the photos Excellent condition, flawless. Insured and tracked shipping from France, Tel:

Dealer

Eclecticnimes

Curiosity, Collection Cabinet objects,

Tel : +33665241111

Mobile : 06-65-24-11-11

Bellegarde 30127

0665241111