Description

Finely chiseled gilt bronze clock, representing two figures seated on a rock surrounded by foam: a man looking with terror at the sky and protecting a young child with his net, guilloche dial with Roman numerals, lower part chiseled with a stylized frieze symbolizing the waves as well as patterns of foliage and shells, from the 19th century Napoleon III. This clock is in good condition. It works and will need to be revised. We have his pendulum, but not his key. A note: the dial is a little worn, dirt and wear on the gilding in places (especially on the sides), wear and scratches from time see photos. Diameter: dial 9 cm / with garland 12.5 cm Dimensions: 34.5 cm x 16.5 cm Height: 49.5 cm Reference: A10 245 All photos are on: www.antiques-delaval.com
