Description

This rare old set includes: an old ring set with a two-layered onyx cameo, oval in shape representing a woman's profile, adorned at the four cardinal points with rose-cut diamonds separated by fine pearls. On both sides, two fleur-de-lis give the start of the ring which is openwork. A pair of antique pendant earrings, the upper part of which is adorned with fine baroque pearls on a circle, and retains in a tassel an openwork motif of volutes centered on a flower, to which is hung in a tassel a cameo on two layers onyx representing the profiles of women, comprising at the base and above cut diamonds in pink surrounded by fine half pearls. The hanging part separates from the fixed part to form a fine pearl sleeper. The hanging system is swan neck. An old brooch - pendant adorned with the
